Business tie-up between ITDC and APTTDC

290. SHRI K.M. KHAN: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that the Andhra Pradesh Tourism Development Corporation has entered into a reciprocal business tie-up with the India Tourism Development Corporation;

if so, what are the details of business tie-up; and in what manner the Andhra Pradesh Tourism Development Corporation is likely to be benefited with that business tie-up?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI ANANTH KUMAR): (a) to (c) The Andhra Pradesh Travel & Tourism Development Corporation Limited (APTTDC), Hyderabad invited applications for appointment of authorised ticket booking agents at Chennai and Bangalore for sale of tickets in the tourist buses being operated by APTTDC. In response,

ITDC had offered and signed an agreement with APTTDC in June, 2000 to act as sole ticket booking agent in respect of the following package tours being operated by APTTDC:

Bangalore-Tirupati-Bangalore

Chennai-Tirupati-Chennai

The other salient features of the agreements are:

Acting as an authorised agent of APTTDC outside the state of Andhra Pradesh, ITDC apart from working as sole agent for the above specified package tours shall also book tickets for all APTTDC services under reciprocal business tie-up on 20% commission basis. In turn, APTTDC shall also act as the representative of ITDC in the state of Andhra Pradesh for selling ITDC services on 20% commission basis.

ITDC has guaranteed a minimum booking of 25 seats for above mentioned package tours for which 10% commission on transport cost will be payable by APTTDC. For booking of over and above 25 tickets, ITDC will be entitled for a commission of 50% on the transport cost.

The agreement is valid for a period of two years to begin with, with a proviso for renewal for another one year on mutually agreed terms.
